

Christmas is nearly upon us and I hope you are going to do exactly what you want to over the holidays.

I love Christmas and I'm looking forward to spending it with friends and family. I will "Skype" my family in England sometime over the holiday, so I won't feel so far away from them.

So I wish you and those in your heart a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy, Healthy 2012

Christmas Gift from a Special Daughter

We had an order from a lady - nothing unusual in that. But after she received the order she sent me an e-mail. Check this out...

My order arrived this afternoon and I must say this gift is the most exciting I'm going to be giving this Christmas! My mother was diagnosed with breast cancer last month and had her breast removed a few weeks ago! She is feeling uncomfortable in her own skin so I'm hoping this makes her feel whole again! I saw you months ago on the dragons den and thought what a great idea I'm sure my mother and I will be doing business with you again! Your idea is fantastic! Thanks so much and happy holidays
Jessica

It bought tears to my eyes. What a wonderful daughter. Your Mom should be proud of you Jessica.
